

MESSAGE OF APPRECIATION FROM MAYOR MCCABE

On behalf of Council and the residents of the City of Waterloo, thank you to all of the volunteers for your commitment and hard work.

For many organizations, volunteers are essential. By providing diverse skills, perspectives and a genuine desire to help, volunteers are the back bone of our community. Individuals and families have been positively impacted by their collective efforts in an unmeasurable manner. Their invaluable contributions extend across various sectors, from assisting in local shelters and food banks to supporting mental health initiatives and inclusivity programs.

It is imperative that we all recognize your dedication for the betterment of our community as a shining example of the important role that volunteerism plays in addressing the needs and aspirations of the residents of our region. The impact of your work is being felt by all.

Volunteers embody the spirit of generosity and community service. Thank you for giving your heart and energy to make our region a thriving community. We hope to keep seeing you be involved and continue to make the Waterloo Region an even better place to live, work and play. Thank you for your outstanding contribution, I look forward to witnessing your work in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Mayor Dorothy McCabe
